Sunday 28th April 2024:

Tim is involved with Bible translation work and discipleship training materials for indigenous leaders in the Paraguayan Chaco.

Dear praying friends,

PRAISE

- I am giving thanks for recent confirmations that took place in one of the indigenous churches in La Patria (a 24,000 hectare tract of land belonging to the Angaité-Éñxet indigenous people), which included many people from other surrounding churches and villages.
- Also for abundant rain which has meant that we have had sufficient water to use the Rio Verde Anglican Centre for a Bible study attended by several dozen indigenous pastors during April.
- I give thanks that I was able to visit my father, Tom Curtis, for a few weeks earlier this year, and that he is fit and well enough to continue living at his home in Tewkesbury.

PRAYER

- Pray for bishop elect Ronald Irene, and for pastor Gustavo Flores, who direct and coordinate the Bible teaching ministry for indigenous pastors with financial help from CMS.
- Please pray for translator Asunción Rojas and Sunday school teacher Guillermo Gonzalez who will be doing a short training course in Asunción organized by the Jesus Film Project at the end of April, so that the 1979 Jesus Film can be dubbed into the Southern Éñxet (probably in June and July this year). For the right people to come forward to assume the roles of the different characters.
- Pray for the Northern Enlhet Bible revision project taking place in Filadelfia with translators Brígido, Evencio, coordinator Arnold, and myself (as consultant) checking through Jeremiah.

Thank you for praying.

Tim
